Opposite A. T. Stewart's Dry Goods Palace, cor-ner Tenth street. Where he will be pleased to receive the orders of his friends and public, and especially to hear from those who have so liberally bestowed their patronage on the firm heretolore. He will supply these superior instruments to the trade wholesale and Retail, at the very Lowest Prices, made with the insulated from film and Frame (cast in one solid piate). They excel all others in durability, superiority of tone, and elegance of external aspessance.

Address all orders to

to three hundred dollars less than any other First Class House.

The tone of these instruments are remarksble for their peculiar Ewestness and Great Hristiancy, never losing their quality when seved to their utmost capacity. The lower register retaining its positiveness, does not destroy the middle and upper registers by mingling with them in disagreeable confusion, the refined boasty of tone being equally delightful to the unpracticed and to the most cultivated ear.

They are an entirely new style of Franc, finded in the most superb manner, we'll four full round coverns front and back, heavily carved less and Lyre Serpentine Base richly moulded, and each instrument is fully warranted for five years.
